On 23rd March 2022, at Kumadvathi College Shikaripura Movie to Mind Programme has organised on the movie ‘Chalk and Duster’ is a 2016 Indian drama film about commercialization of the Indian private education system. The film talks about teachers' and students' communication, and highlights the problem of teachers and students in an educational system which is changing day by day. It was a great learning experience for the student teachers as they got an opportunity to interact with others after leaving the sheltered environment of the classroom. Venturing into a public place, allows the children to be exposed to different situations.
